

Electronic Research & Instruction Center Policy (Room 101)

Purpose

The Center supports the library's instructional needs and secondarily serves as a student computer lab. When not reserved, Room 101 operates as an open lab available to any user with a valid university computing account.

Equipment

Room 101 is equipped with 31 iMAC OSX and Window 7 (dual boot) computers. The 30 student workstations and 1 instructor's station are loaded with MiniTab, MyITLab and SPSS software along with Microsoft Office 2010.

Scheduling A Library Session

Instructors are encouraged to contact either:

- Gerard Hogan, Head of Reference Services, Gerard.Hogan@cwu.edu ext. 1961
- The Reference Desk, ext. 1021, or their Library Liaison to schedule a session with their Library Liaison.

Current Schedule

- Link to it at <http://www.lib.cwu.edu/roombooking/> or
- From the Library's Homepage ?Services? Computer Lab 101 Schedule

Scheduling Other Computer Labs

To schedule/reserve a computer lab for non-library related activities, professors are encouraged to contact Academic Scheduling, ext. 3004. Click for a Schedule and List of other available campus labs.

Source URL: <http://www.lib.cwu.edu/ElectronicResearchInstructionCenterPolicyRoom101>