

Lynnwood Campus Library

Lynnwood Center Library Resources is one of the Central Washington University Libraries, providing on-site services to CWU Centers students in addition to those provided to all Centers students by the main campus Brooks Library, including:

- Reference services with ready and in-depth research assistance.
- Instruction services with individuals, groups and class-sized presentations.
- Borrowing services for in-house materials, reserve items, and loans.
- Computer Services including access to resource room research stations and an instructional classroom computer lab.

Accounts you will need

All library users will need to create or activate the following accounts:

1. CWU Campus Account - Your general university account. All current students, staff & faculty are registered with this account, and issued a Connection Card.
2. Interlibrary Loan Account - Request materials from libraries across the U.S. Once created, you can remotely log into Interlibrary Loan.

If you are having difficulty connecting from off-campus, please refer to our Guide to Connecting from Off-campus. You may also call our toll free telephone number at 800.290.3327 for further assistance.
